

“WHY CHURCH?”

January
Sermon Series

Sundays 10:45 AM

Join us as local residents from diverse age groups and professions discuss Christianity and answer the question: How is the Word relevant in all aspects of our lives for the 21st century?

January 5 - Science and Spirituality

Diane Allen, PT, PhD, UCSF and SFSU

Do you ever wonder how science and spirituality can coexist? Dr. Allen is a Professor with joint appointments at UCSF and SFSU in the Graduate Program in Physical Therapy. Her areas of expertise include neurorehabilitation, measurement, and evidence-based research. Dr. Allen will speak to us on Religion vs. Spirituality and how Christianity informs how she sees the world.

January 12 - Medicine and Miracles

Dr. Chris Holsinger, MD, Stanford University Medical Center

Do miracles still happen? Chris Holsinger, PhD, is Chief of Head and Neck Surgery at Stanford University. Dr. Holsinger's surgical practice focuses on the surgical management of benign and malignant diseases of the thyroid, as well as head and neck cancer. Join us as he shares his perspective on the flesh and blood of Communion. Is this really the blood of Christ?

January 19 - Entrepreneurial Spirit and Holy Spirit

Kali Morris

Kali Morris is a Saudi born personal life coach and speaker. Ms. Morris will share what her life was like in Saudi Arabia before Christ and her life today. She will talk about Christianity's impact on women's rights and how she works and parents.

January 26 - Hope and Social Justice

Hope Crockett, BA Exercise & Sport Science, Interim Children & Youth Director, FUMCPA

Ms. Crockett is a recent college graduate and athlete with a degree in Exercise and Sports Science from the University of North Carolina. Hope will share her millennial perspective on Christianity and its inherent advocacy for movements that improve our world, such as combatting Climate Change to save our planet.
