

How to Start a Small Group Bible Study

1. Ask people if they would like to study with you. (2-10 people)
2. Decide
 - a. Leadership
 - i. who will lead the study
 - ii. You can alternate, just make sure you publish a calendar so each person knows when they are suppose to lead.
 - b. Place
 - c. Frequency
 - d. Values and confidentiality
 - e. Refreshments-type and who will bring what? The calendar will help with this as well
3. Name your group -you can change it as you evolve.
4. Commit with a covenant signing by all membership
5. Pray about and commit to a quarterly community project together (Name it in 30 days)
6. Send the pastor your group name and project
7. Enjoy where God leads you.

I am asking each small group to commit to a church, community or global project per quarter. Engage your friends to help you accomplish the task. Propose to drill 3 water wells; build houses with Habitat, Organize feeding on the days Hotel D' Zink doesn't feed...
