

Small Group Study

Joshua 1

Use the S.O.A. P method for your group.

Read the Background and Commentary after you have completed the S.O.A. P. method. It will enrich your revelations, and elicit discussion. Bring your S.O.A.P journal with you to your small group session.

- Begin with Prayer
- Read the Scripture Aloud Together
- Ask participants to share one of their Observations and Applications
- Answer the questions below and any others you may have.
- Share personal concerns for which you would like your group to Pray with you about. (Keep these confidential. This is a part of your group covenant.)

Notes

God has an inheritance for all of us

God gives leaders a vision and the Leader communicates the vision and enlist the participants in how to accomplish the plan.

Leader communicates the vision and the plan

Engages total participation

Participants pledge their commitment using their resources (gifts, time, talent finance, encouragement, influence...).

Questions

1. What does Lilla Watson's quote mean, "If you have come here to help me, you are wasting your time...But if you have come because your liberation is bound up with mine then let us work together."
2. What unique gifts and talents do you have?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
3. With whom can you partner to use your talents to transform the world?
4. Who is Malala Yousafzai and how is she able to use her wounds to heal and bring transformation?
5. What community service project will your group focus upon this quarter?

There is a moment when you have to decide whether to be silent or stand up. At the moment of commitment, the universe conspires to assist you.